

What do we gain from studying the End Times?

FIVE LESSONS

A solid green horizontal bar at the bottom of the slide.

Lesson One: The End Times are real.

These things will take place. The apocalyptic passages are not fiction.

Lesson Two: Worship Reflects the Genuineness of Spiritual Life

There are many scenes of worship in the Revelation.
This reminds us that we are created to worship someone, and if we will not worship God, we will worship false idols.

Lesson Three:
Satan hates God, hates us, but will ultimately be defeated.

We must remember, as we see evil explode around us, that Satan does not win in the end. God is alone is all-powerful and all-powerful.

Lesson Four:

We must live intensely for Jesus.

All the commands given to Christians in the Revelation (“repent,” “don’t fear,” “be faithful,” “hold fast”) are there to help us avoid complacency, laxity, discouragement, and spiritual death.

Lesson Five:

Studying the End Times should bring us comfort.

God will be victorious, and his people will be with him for eternity. This should cheer us in our times of discouragement and disappointment.
